GENERAL TIPS FOR YOUR REFERENCE LIST

- The reference list should be double-spaced and entries should have a hanging indent.
- Alphabetize sources by the last name of the first author. Alphabetize sources with no author by the first significant word in the title.
- Capitalize the titles of journals, magazines, and newspapers. Capitalize only the first word of the title, subtitle, and any proper nouns for books and encyclopedias.
- Italicize the titles of books and the titles of periodical publications.
- Use easy to read fonts such as Times Roman (12-pt.) and Courier (12-pt.).
